Terms.

4

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.—One copy, one year, $1 50; 003 copy, six months, 75 cents: one copy, three months, 50 cents. All subscriptions payable in advance.

ADVERTISING RATES.—One square, first insertion, $1 00; each subsequent insertion, 50 cents. Oblituaries and Tributes of Payact above of the control for a recent advention.

of Respect charged for as regular adver-tisements. Liberal contracts made for three, six and twelve months.
Communications must be accompanied by the real name and address of the writer in order to receive attention. No communication of a personal character will be pub-ished except as an advertisement. For further information address

JAMES L. SIMS, Lock Box No. 116, Orangeburg, S. C.

Eighty girls employed in Guernand's silk mills at Jersey City struck for eight hours as a day's work on Saturday and left the looms at 4 o'clock. The foreman locked the doors and laughed at them, whereupon they threw him out of the window.

Col. J. B. Folsom, of New York, states that his granddaughter, Miss Frankie Folsom, will be married to President Cleveland in June. She and her mother have completed the selection of her wedding trousseau in Europe and are now on their way home.

While transporting a load of dele- him he says. How much cotton will officials. gates of the Knights of Honor from you raise? Cotton, and nothing but the depot in Georgetown on the night | cotton, can be pledged to the merchant, of the 20th, the horses ran off and one or them was so badly hurt as to neces-sitate his being killed. A one-armed toes, we have to hawk it around the turned to Washington from Maine, occupant of the vehicle was injured slightly.

A row is brewing in the South Carolina free trade club. Its president, Mr. Dargan, indulged in a little free trade buncombe, spiced with abolition cant, recently in a meeting at Brooklyn, and some of the members of the club have quit in consequence. We hope our brethren of the free trade club will columns the above extract is taken. live in peace.

We admire the way the News and Independent land-owners, but simply Courier sticks to the Charleston base tenants on their own farms-a body of ball team. Every time the club gets serfs obeying the mandates of the real and an outrage upon all the privacies worsted, our cotemporary comes out landowners and growing poorer and worsted, our cotemporary comes out landowners, and growing poorer and the next morning and explains the more dependent every year. This is no whole thing away, giving every excuse, fancy picture. It is a mournful reality. expect the right one, why the Charles- A prominent merchant in a country ton Club fares so badly at the hands of town told the writer that he had re- it will be some other poor girl. Why do

The directors of the Eagle and lands and stock since the first of Jan-Phenix cotton manufacturing compa- uary, and sixty in the past fifteen days. ny, of Columbus, Ga., have decided to This was but a single store in a single increase the wages of their operatives county-think what a mass of encum-May 1. About 2,000 operatives are show. No people can prosper under affected. No demand was made and such a system. The credit system as no dissatisfaction expressed at the at present carried on between our fac-

The Dakota member of the national means the inevitable impoverishment Democratic Executive Committee en- and ruin of our planters. A farmer tered a meeting of the Congressional will enter into any obligation for the Committee on Monday and denounced future so he is relieved of present em-Mr. Johnson, the member of that com- barrassment. He will contract to do mittee from Dakota, as a spy and a something that it is manifestly im-Republican in disguise. Johnson rose possible for him to do, and burden his and called him a liar. The matter is land with an encumbrance that must willing to give all the information asked. to be investigated.

WE were pleased to see by a late number of the Palatka Herald that its chief editor, G. W. Pratt, Esq., who had been extremely ill, is again at his post. On a visit sometime ago to Florida we with a mortgage on it, sell 500 of them had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Pratt, and pay out. Let the man who is run-rights to his private affairs."—Washand his cordial greeting on that occasion made a lasting impression on us. if necessary to set him free, and so on We wish Mr. Pratt and his excellent journal many years of usefulness yet.

This government will have to pay $130,000 indemnity for outrages com- bacon. Let him raise what he requires mitted upon the Chinese in Washing- to live on, and let him live on what he Republican Presidential ticket in the last ton Territory. Every man participating in these acts of murder and violence was a foreigner. The letter masters of the situation in less than written by the Chinese minister to Mr. Secretary Bayard expounding the moral law of all nations, is calculated to Farmer's Convention can induce the make Christians blush for some of their so-called brethren.

THE inconsiderate and altogether too previous friends of Blaine who do not will not have been held in vain, and seem disposed to let him rest in his poli- our farmers will become independent, tical retirement, are already suggesting but if they continue "the suicidal polihis renomination in 1888. There is quite cy of planting cotton to the exclusion utter insignificance. Besides this, they a stretch before that period arrives, and of food crops and mortgaging their lots of opportunity for the development of Presidential candidates. In Blaine's plies at high prices and ruinous rates case it might not be inappropriate to of interest," we agree with the Chronisay in the words of the song: "Let the Dead and the Beautiful Rest."

Jacob Miller, of Fountaindale, Pa., married his first cousin, and between 1860 and 1874 eleven children were born to them. Of these all were of unsound mind save one, a daughter by no means bright, who is married. Eight others are alive, and five of them are idiots and the others little better. Mrs. Miller is dead and her husband, who is a prosperous farmer, lives alone with his unfortunate children. He says his misfortune is a "stroke of Providence."

A Florida girl has written an open letter to Jones, the love-sick Senator, berry. All of them died spinsters. wanting to know why he has gone to There was not in all Chicago a selffrozen Michigan "to waste his virgin respecting man worthy of the girls who affections upon the marble hearts of an would sell himself out for $500,000. A unresponsive woman? Let him return," says she, "to his own sunny land of flowers and bananas, where mocking birds ever sing in the magnolia and the safe air is laden. lemon trees, where the soft air is laden get with odor and orange flowers. Why girls are not fought over by the desiradoes he turn away from us, his own sisters of the balmy and languid South, who long for his kisses? Come back! Come back! Oh, Jonesey, you old fool, farmers' meeting last Saturday was a come back!"

Our Farmers.

or converted into money, If we go to ton, a dozen buyers crowd around us before we reach our destination. We merchants who let us have the money we must plant." In the language of "what a state of affairs is this. The farmers no longer free agents, no longer corded over 400 mortgages on farmers'

tors, country merchants and farmers

ning two hundred acres sell 100 or 150

down. Then with fifty acres unencumbered, and, owing no man anything, let him raise his own corn, potatoes and makes." This advice if followed would make the farmers of South Carolina

five years, and put them on the high road to prosperity and wealth. If the farmers of this State to follow the excellent advice given by the Augusta

Chronicle to the farmers of Georgia it lands to merchants who furnish supcle that it is only a matter of time

Rich Girls and Matrimony.

cago a first rate chance of getting first-rate husbands says the Mail. There are not enough rich marriageble young men to go around even if the rich girls get them all; and they do not. Old on his three daughters-wholesome good-looking and sensible girls all of them-$500,000 apiece, which should go to them and their husbands absolutely whenever they married, provided the husband would take the name of New-very medicore husbands.

So far as numbers are concerned, the ne'er-do-wells.

Rich girls really do not stand in Chi-

when the end must come.

or provisions wants cotton and cotton

The Farmer's Convention meets today in Columbia, and the question is weeks there is no more pitiful, and at asked on all sides what can it do to bet- the same time more impressive spectater the condition of the farmer. This cle, says the Chicago Graphic News, question is not easily solved, as it is than that of General Alexander Shahard to see what a convention can do ler. sitting in a New York court room to make a non-paying business profita- under an indictment for bribe-taking, ble. That farming, or, at least, our with his head bowed down on his hands method of farming, is unprofitable, and the hot tears of shame trickling goes without saying. To be convinced over the furrows of his face. Once a of this fact, we have only to look brave and competent soldier, and later around us, and we will see evidences of a prominent and honored citizen, a it on every hand, but it is hard to see favorite in social circles, and the head how the convention is going to remedy of a refined and loving family, he must this unless it can induce our farmers certainly feel that his present degradato change their mode of farming. No tion is complete. And yet, poor Shaman can have his smoke-house in Ten- ler's offense was but the natural outnessee, his corn crib in Indiana, buy come of a state of public morals which his stock in Kentucky, and plant cotton is becoming more and more characterhis stock in Kentucky, and plant cotton is becoming more and more character- for fatally wounding a man in a fight at 8 cents a pound and make a living. istic of this American nation, and The mother of the two men and the Indeed, many farmers say it actually which is chiefly created by an all-subcosts more to produce cotton now than duing regard for money and display, they can get for it. Why then plant and the flabby ideas of duty that preit. Why not raise corn, oats, meat and vail in regard to the service of the stock, thus insuring the means of liv- people. When we shall have realized ing, and only plant cotton as a surplus more generally that money and ostenstock to sell. This would reduce the tation are by no means essential to supply and in the natural order of happiness, and that the honor and things increase the demand. The reply probity of a public servant should be comes that "we are in debt. We have as fully above suspicion as those of nothing to run us through the year. any other citizen, then we shall hear In order to live we must get advances much less of corrupt legislators, abfrom the merchant. When we go to sconding bank cashiers, and disgraced

> The Plumed Knight. The Charleston Sunday News, of the Bowed Down With Shame.

Among the events of the past few

25th instant, says: streets all day, and perhaps not find a declares enthusiactically that nothing purchaser; if we go with a bag of cot-ton a decay by your constitution of 1888.

It may be true as Mr. Phelps says that nothing can prevent the nominahave no money to plant with-the tions of the Plumed Knight by the Republican Convention of 1888, but we publican Convention of 1888, but we pleased him, when three men knocked feel confident that the honest people him down and kicked him nearly to of this country will prevent his election as they did in 1884.

the Augusta Chronicle, from whose The Pesident Quite Outspoken. The President is indignant at the versatile freedom of the press in discussing his alleged approaching marriage. "These reports," he said, "are a shame should find something better to do than to be pitching into an unprotected girl in this brutal way. Last week it was a lady stopping in the house. Next week you not accord to your President the privileges you do to the laborer earning fifty cents a day? The President should have rights of privacy you might respect. Your class give me none. A man said ten per cent., the increase to take place brances the records of the State must here on Sundays to shave me. Why. I twenty years. Pretty soon they will want to know what sort of a nightshirt I wear (with a grim laugh.) But you were very right to come and ask me. and I will say that when we-I-wet ready to announce my marriage (sarcastically,) I shall do so in my own way. But the result of it all will be that we shall have to shut you people out entirely from getting news here. I have a man-Colonel Lamont-who is in full sympathy with the press. and who is in the end overwhelm it. There is but and yet you are not satisfied. Now. one way out of all this. That is for why don't you do something different farmers to settle up their indebtedness, half of the sacred immunity of pure wofrom all the rest, and say a word in beand begin to live within their means. manhood from being made the common This is not impracticable. Let the talk of a continent, and write someplanter who is farming 1,000 acres, thing on the other side of the question A man, though a President, has some ington Letter.

A War Cry Against Edmunds.

MONTPELIER, VT., April 21.— Hiram Atkins has issued the following cry against Senator Edmunds: "The campaign is opened; the issue is presented. Loyalty to and support of the campaign,' is the question that is to be decided in the coming Senatorial contest in Vermont. Shall the man who 'sulks in his tent,' who refuses even to sign a letter of encouragement to the Republican cohorts in an exciting canvass under the Plumed Knight,' be indorsed by the Republicans of the 'star that never sets,' as loyal to the party by his re-election to the Senate? The question is a momentous one. The issue is vital to the Republican party. Upon it hangs the des-tiny of the party in the next Presidential election and all other issues sink into are as a gnat to a mountain. Our Republican friends should wake up to the contest. Never before was so important a question presented for their de-cision. Life and death are in it. Wake up! wake up! Sound the alarm from hill to hill-top, and let it echo through the valleys."

The Labor Question.

The President has sent a message to Congress, calling attention to the gravity of the situation of the labor question throughout the entire country and expressing the opinion that the proper theory upon which to proceed is that of Walter Newberry, on his death, settled voluntary arbitration as a means of settling the difficulties described and suggesting that there be created a commission of Labor, consisting of three mem-bers, who shall be regular officers of the government, charged, among other duties, with the consideration and settlement when possible of all controversies between capital and labor.

The Domestic Sewing Machine Company, of Newark, closed its doors on Monday last, for an indefinite time. More that 1,100 men are thrown out of employment, and in many cases it will entail considerable hardship. Over-production and the slight chances of diminishing the stock on hand, are assigned as the chief causes of this deplorable action on the part of the com-

The body of an uuknown colored man was found on Friday in a hogshead left in a field by the receding waters of the Cumberland river near Ciarksville, Tenn.

General News. Col. Claude E. Sawyer, of Aiken, had his nose broken one night last week by s cow which he was untying suddenly throwing her head up and striking him in the face.

Judge W. T. Taylor was arrested last week in Atlanta for being drunk in the streets. The judge claims to belong to the supreme court bench of Texas, and hails from Austin.

It is now certain that the schooner Charles H. Morse, from Baltimore, loaded with coal for Boston, sunk the Oregon and was swept under water by the swift running steamer.

A chum of James Sullivan, of Danbury, Conn., placed a bent pin in his chair in order to see him jump. pin penetrated the backbone, and Sullivan is reported dying in the hospital.

Two Brothers named Weaver were lynched in Athony, Kansas, on Sunday, wife of one of them were present and saw the tragedy.

An attempt by Representative Spooner in the house on Tuesday to reduce the appropriation for the improvement of Charleston harbor from $250,000 to $100,000 was defeated, only one vote being given for it.

The convicts in prison at St. Vincent de Paul, Quebec, got possession of arms and revolted on Saturday. One prisoner was killed and several woundd in the desperate fight that ensued before the convicts were subdued.

Eugene Beck, of Clayton, Ga., who in a drunken fury killed his wife and her sister while in bed two years ago, has een sent to the penitentiary for life Influential relatives and friends aided in keeping him from the gallows.

A tornado along Broad River, in Rutherford County, N. C., destroyed a number of dwellings, barns and other property. A great many horses and other stock were killed and several persons were injured but none fatally.

In a discussion in a Chicago boarding house, Henry Smith expressed the opinion that it was every man's right to belong to a labor union or not as it

Francis Platte Wickes, a young lawyer of New York, who shot a young woman and then himself, was still alive thirty-six hours after the occurrence, although a large bullet had en-tered his right temple and passed out

Frank Seegmileer, a Catholic priest at Bradford, Ind., became enraged because some of the members of his church attended the Christian church. and after services Sunday, when the congregation was dispersing, he fired three shots at the crowd. No one was struck. He was placed under arrest.

It is believed that the residence of Chas. B. Kimball, of Chicago, was fired by incendiaries, through revenge for his connection with the labor agitation of a year ago, he being treasurer the other week that the barber came of a stone company. An explosive here on Sundays to shave me. Why. I have not been shaved by a barber for nearly killed Mr. Kimball's wife and

> An unknown old lady rose in her sleep and walked off a train on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia road while it was running at full speed on Saturday night. She was found insensible by the track near Rockmart next morning and carried to Atlanta. She was richly dressed. Her injuries are very serious.

> Jay Gould's testimony before the labor investigating committee yesterday occupied nearly four hours. He denies that he is to blame for the strike, and says it was brought about to give a few men notoriety. He says that la-bor is 60 per cent of a railroad's exenses, and but for the pooling system half of the roads in the country would be in the hands of receivers.

John Walker, colored, was drowned in the Savannah River in January.
Last week his body floated to the surface, was recovered and buried. The negroes have a superstition that if a body is rescued in this way and buried, the waters from the river will follow and reach it. The heavy rain and the rise in the river immediately after the burial almost proved the truth of their superstition in this instance.

The Church of San Louis, in Madrid, was badly damaged yesterday morning, by an explosive, which had been placed inside of one of the large hollow_can-Two sextons were injured. Fortunately the explosion occurred before the worshippers had assembled, otherwise the loss of life would have been terrible. There is much excitement, but no trace of the perpetrators of the outrage has been discovered.

In Spartanburg on Wednesday two women carrying a couple of bags visit-ed a number of stores, examined goods and promised to make purchases when they returned. At the jewelry store of Mr. J. A. Hammon they were detected in the act of secreting jewelry. The bags were searched and found to con-tain a large variety of articles taken from the stores they had visited. The goods were identified by the owners and the women were carried to jail.

Persons applying to the Revenue Department for special tax stamps for retail dealers in liquor or beer and dealers in manufactured tobacco will facilitate the issuing of such stamps by swearing to their returns, before some official authorized to administer an oath, before sending the applications in. The law requires that every return shall be sworn to before the stamps are issued. Filling out and signing return is not sufficient.

On Sunday, near Axton station. on the Danvill and New River Railroad, a negro named Kellis Moorman, by a forged note induced Mike Mahone, a capital by a Rond of the purchaser or purwhite man, to go to a neighboring house to play a game of cards. Ma-hone took a small sum of money with him, and on the way Moorman knocked Mahone down and robbed him. Mahone was badly stunned, but recovered sufficiently to tell what had happened. A party of men soon captured Moor-man and lynched him. Mahone's wounds are thought to be fatal.

A Fatal April Kiss.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., April 22 .- To night George Aenderson, colored, cut his wife's throat. Both lived together, but at times had fusses. She left him to-day. He went to her mother, s house. stole her razor, called her out in the dark and said: "Annie, kiss me." She did, and he cut her throat. He escaped. Jan ...

THE school girls of Troy, Edgefield county, have a military company and a base ball nine.

Married.

AXSON-CRIM-On the 25th instant, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. Lucius S. Bellinger, Mr. William Axson o Miss Annie Crim, daughter of Derril Crim. All of Orangeburg County, S. C.

HARLLEE-THOMAS-By Rev. W. H. John W. Funches, Mr. Arthur M. Harllee to Miss Mary G. Thomas. Both of Orangeburg County.

Notice of Dismissal.

PHIRTY DAYS AFTER DATE I will file my final account with the Judge of Probate for Orangeburg County as Administrator of the Estate of William Winningham, deceased, and ask for letters of dismissal. L. H. WANNAMAKER, C. C. P. and G. S., and Administrator.

Notice.

OFFICE OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. ANGEBURG, C. H., S. C., April 24, 1886. )
OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Commissioners will

above time and place.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Board of County Commissioners.

Elerk Board County Commissioners.

April 29-2t.

Notice.

OFFICE OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, ANGEBURG, C. H., S. C., April 24, 1886. ) OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Commissioners will receive Sealed Bids for opening a Public Read running from Mt. Lebanon Lutheran Church to the Bellville Public Road, at or near the City of Orangeburg.

The said road will be 8 miles long, the same having been surveyed and staked off and numbered.

Persons desiring to bid for said road can see the Specifications by calling at the office of Moss & Dantzler.

Bids will be received by the undersigned on or before the 15th day of May, 1886, at 11 o'clock, and the said bids may be for any one mile or for the entire road.

The contractor will be required to give Bond for the faithful performance of the work, and will be required to complete the contract or contracts on or before the first

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Board of County Commissioners. B. H. MOSS, Clerk Board County Commissioners.

Notice of Dismissal.

April 29-3t.

PHIRTY DAYS AFTER DATE, I will file my final account with the Judge of Probate for Orangeburg County as Administrator of the Estate of Joseph Johnson, deceased, and ask for Letters of Dismissal.

L. H. WANNAMAKER.
Clerk of Court and Administrator de bonis and April 22-4t.

April 22-4t.

Notice of Dismissal. THIRTY DAYS AFTER DATE I will file my final account with the Judge of Probate for Orangeburg County, as Administratrix of the Estate of John M. Danner, deceased, and ask for Letters of Dismissal. S. A. Danner, April 22-4t. Qualified Administratrix.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., April, 16 1896. S DIDS WILL BE RECEIVED AT this office until May 1st, 1836, for furnishing the City of Orangeburg with prime Lumber for one year from date. To be de-livered in such quantities and at such times

s the Street Committee may direct.
C. D. Kortjohn,
April 22. Clerk of Council.

OFFICE OF CITY TREASURER,

will be attached. By order of Mayor. C. D. Kortjohn,

City Clerk and Treasurer. April 22.

Notice.

OFFICE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, ORANGEBURG, S. C. April 10, 1886. \
OTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Commissioners will meet at Mount Lebanon Lutheran Church, on the 23rd day of April, 1886, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of letting out contracts, for OPENING A PUBLIC ROAD running from said Church to the Bellville Road near the City of Orangeburg, to the lowest responsible bidders.

Specification will be made known at the above time and place.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Board

County Commissioners. B. H. MOSS, Clerk Board County Commissioners.

Master's Sale.

State of South Carolina, County of Orange-burg—In the Court of Common Pleas. Harriet E. Neal, Plaintiff, against Frances I. Ott, et. al., Defendants. By virtue of the judgment of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said county and State, in the above entitled action, I will

State, in the above entitled action, I will sell at public auction, at Orangeburg Court House, on the first Monday in May next, during the legal hours of sale, all that certain TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND, situate, lying and being in Caw Caw Township, in said County and State, containing six hundred and thirty-two (632) acres, more or less, and bounded by lands now or fomerly of Milledge Herlong, Wesley Houser, Ann Collins, Estate of Nathan Culcleasure and others. The tract will be sold in parcels, and plat exhibited on day of sale.

secured by a Bond of the purchaser or pur-chasers, bearing interest from the day of chasers, bearing interest from the day of sale, payable annually, and a Mortgage of the premises sold, purchaser to pay Master for papers and recording; and all taxes that shall be payable in 1886 and in case the purchaser or purchasers shall fail to comply with the terms of sale, the premises will be recorded on the pays for some convenient sales.

Tayll I SELI re-sold on the next or some convenient sales day, on the same terms, at the risk of the former purchaser or purchasers.
ANDREW C. DIBBLE, Master.

Master's Office, Orangeburg C. H., S. C. April 11, 1886.

To the Public.

TAKE PLEASURE IN ANnouncing that I will run the Ice Business from May 1st, 1886. Customers please reserve your orders and oblige.

Yours truly,
Jan ... CHARLES P. BRUNSON.

To Public School Trustees.

OFFICE OF SCHOOL COMMISSIONER, ORANGEBURG COUNTY, 1 SORANGEBURG, S. C., April, 15, 1886. AM PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE to the Public School Trustees of Orangeburg County that the end, so long desired, of gaining up the one year behind on the school fund, has, at last, been accomplished, and that all future apportionments will be cash, which will put a stop to the floating of school claims upon the market.

There is, also, enough cash now in hand

There is, also, enough cash now in hand to pay NEARLY all of the balance of this year's apportionment—and possibly, ALL claims issued, after this date, will be cashed—I will, at any rate, cash all claims, hereafter issued, until the money is exhausted. STILES R. MELLICHAMP, April 15-2t. School Commissioner, O. C.

HAMILTON'S INSURANCE AGENCY

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER GENERAL, COLUMBIA, S. C., April 1, 1886.

I certify that Mr. John A. Hamilton, of Orangeburg, S. C., Agent of the NORTH BRITISH and MERCANTILE, QUEEN Insurance Companies of North America, WESTERN ASSURANCE, FACTOR'S and TRADER'S, PEICAN and HOME INSURlet out a contract for repairing Jeffcoat's Bridge on Monday, the 17th day of May, 1886, at 12 o'clock.

Specifications will be made known at
above time and place.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Board of County Commissioners

B. H. MOSS risks and transact all business of insurance in this State in the County of Orangeburg for and in behalf of said Comoanics. Expires March 31st, 1887. W. E. STONEY, Comptroller General.

Notice.

OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER GENERAL,

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 1st, 1886. S CERTIFY THAT KIRK ROBIN-SON, of Orangeburg, Agent of the LIVERPOOL AND LONDON AND GLOBE Insurance Company; CONTINEN-GLOBE Insurance Company; CONTINENTAL Insurance Company; GEORGIA HOME Insurance Company; GEORGIA HOME Insurance Company; PHENIX Insurance Company and the GERMAN AMERICAN Insurance Company, has complied with the requisition of the Act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act to regulate the Agencies of Insurance Companies not incorporated in the State of South Carolina," and I hereby license the said KIRK ROBINSON, Agent aforesaid, to take risks and transact all business of Insurance in this State, in the County of Orangeburg, for and in behalt of said Companies. Expires March, 31st, 1887. (SIGNED) W. E. STONEY. April 15-1t. Comptioller General.

Notice.

Comptioller General.

April 15-1t.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER GENERAL. COLUMBIA, S. C., April 1, 1886.

CERTIFY, THAT BULL & SUO-VILL, of Orangeburg, Agents of the Citizens and Hanover Fire Insurance Companies incorporated by the State of New York; of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, incorporated by the State of Connecticut; and the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company incorporated by the State of Massachusetts, have compiled with the receivisitions of the Agentyal the requisitions of the Act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act to regulate Agencies of Insurance Companies not incorporated in the State of South Carolina," and I hereby license the said Messrs. BULL & SCOVILL Agents aforesaid, to take risks and transact all business of Insurance in and transact all business of Insurance in this State, in the County of Orangeburg, for and in behalf of said Companies. Expires March 31st, 1887. W. E. STONEY, Comptroller General.

Carolina Cultivator.

April 15-3mo.

Patented October 13, 1885.

FARMERS ARE INVITED TO examine this CULTIVATOR at the office of Mr. Kirk Robinson. It cultivates COTTON, CORN or VEGETABLES dur-THE OFFICE OF THE CITY

Treasurer of Orangeburg will be open from this date to the 30th instant. for the collection of all Licenses, (including Buggy Tax) and also the Compound or Road Tax, for the fiscal year, beginning April 1st, 1886, and ending March 31st, 1887.

Also all persons owning property within the incorporate limits of the City of Orangeburg, are required to return the same, both real and personal for taxation, on or before that date. After that date the penalty will be attached. By order of Mayor.

SIDES of plants AT THE SAME TIME, and will harrow cotton before coming up without injuring stand. It BARS OFF or throws dirt TO the plants as may be desired. It is simple, durable, and a great labor-saver. It took first Premium at the last State Fair. Send for descriptive circular. Price, $8.50 and freight from Columbia, S. C. Address, JAS. H. FOWLES, Patentee, Orangeburg, S. C. April 1.

Notice.

OFFICE COUNTY COMMISSIONED ing their early growth, working BOTH SIDES of plants AT THE SAME TIME,

OFFICE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, }
ORANGEBURG, S. C., April 5, 1886. }
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Commissioners will let out a contract to the lowest responsible bidder, on the 30th day of April, 1886, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of BUILDING A CAUSEWAY at Holman's Bridge across the South Edisto River.

Specification will be made known at above time and place. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Board County Commissioners.

B. H. MOSS, Clerk Board County Commissioners.

Notice.

THE BOOKS OF SUBSCRIPTION to the Orangeburg and Lewiedale Rail Road Company, will be open until the first day of May next at the offices of Moss & Dantzler and Bull & Scoville. Shares $100 each. Subscriptions received by either of the undersigned.

B. H. MOSS J. E. BULL, Committee.

Notice of Dismissal.

HIRTY DAYS AFTER DATE Title DATS ARTER TALE

the undersigned will apply to the Judge of Probate of Orangeburg County for his final discharge as Executor of the Will of W. F. Hutson, deceased.

O. J. C. HUTSON,

April 1-44

Executor

Executor. April 1-4t

Notice of Dismissal. ON THE 6TH DAY OF MAY I will file my final account with the Judge of Probate as Guardian of J. E. C.

Dukes and ask for a discharge.

EDMOND F. DUKES,

April 8--4t. Guardian. Tanning! Tanning!!

AVING RESUMED THE TANning Business near Orangeburg I am now prepared to Tan and Dress all kinds of Hides on halves. In front of Dr. Mur-ray's Residence. WM. PRUSNER.

Eggs for Sale.

WILL SELL A FEW SETTINGS of Prize Black Hamburgh Eggs at $1.50 per setting of 13. They are the best breed for laying and are adapted to the South.

WM. BENNETT, Orangeburg, S. C.

Notice.

THE FARMERS' OF ORAGE-burg County are requested to meet at the Court House, 24th day of April, to elect Delegates to attend the Farmers' Convenwhich meets on 29th April, at Colum-S. C. MANY FARMERS. bia, S. C.